The 1.83 billion dollars problem

1. Global mold prevention market to reach 1.83billion usd in 2020.
2. Mold is an economic and health problem.
3. What is mold? (WebMD)
  - a. Mold is a type of fungus that consists of small organisms found almost everywhere. They can be black, white, orange, green, or purple.
  - b. When mold is growing on a surface, spores can be released into the air where they can be easily inhaled. If you're sensitive to mold and inhale a large number of spores, you could experience health problems.
4. Different strategies can be adopted to prevent mold growth.
